Our 'Mandarin for Mums Club' is designed to help adult learners build their competence in the Chinese language in order that they may be able to conduct daily conversation in Mandarin (at work, home and social gatherings) and at the same time learn simple Chinese characters and phrases.

We will teach basic, yet very practical conversations, along with essential skills needed to use Pin-Yin, a powerful tool for self-teaching. It contains the simplest and most practical lessons, specifically designed for beginners who have had little or no experience in learning Chinese before.
