

Around Town

For the Kids

The Woodland group of schools has established a partnership with Save the Children, an international charity organisation for children that provides those who are most vulnerable with education, healthcare and protection. To start its campaign, Woodland hosted a Save the Children kick-off at its Beachside campus with one of the most-loved children's characters, Peppa Pig, official ambassador for Save the Children.

