

Mandarin for Grown Ups

Mandarin for Grown Ups is designed to help adult learners build their competence in the Chinese language so that they can conduct daily conversation in Mandarin (at work, home and social gatherings) and at the same time explore the Chinese culture.

Our native Mandarin instructor teaches basic, yet very practical words and phrases, along with the essential skills needed to use Pin-Yin, a powerful tool to pronounce, spell as well as type easily. Practical lessons are catered to beginners who have little or no prior experience learning Chinese.

Some of the subjects include: names, greetings, numbers, family members, time, days & dates, nationalities & language, addresses & telephone numbers.
